Old Houses, Holborn.—The picturesque gabled and timbered front dates from Elizabethan or early Stuart days, and is almost a unique survival of its kind in a London Street. Staple Inn behind has two little quadrangles, quiet nooks hard by the bustling streets. Dr Johnson is said to have lived here 1759-60. One of Dickens' characters, Mr Grewgions in "Edwin Drood," had lodgings in the second court, which is joined by a small but dignified Dutch Garden with fountain.
